CA Update

- Statistics:

    - Issued 160 new Certs since project kick-off

    - Issued 74 Certs in June

    - There's an additional 38 Cert requests that are in flight

- We're still on target for sunsetting Entrust (our current CA) by Nov 1st

Please contact Carequality (admin@carequality.org) with any questions/concerns about the new process or the new Certificate Authority

Technical Trust Policy

Technical Trust Policy

- To account for the new Certificate Authority and the new workflows that exist for obtaining a Cert, we recently issued a redlined/updated version to the Implementer Community for review

- To date, we've received no suggested edits/corrections for what we distributed

- These updates do not require any architectural changes for the Implementer community, so we're expecting this process to continue to move swiftly

- Last week, the Advisory Council recommended that the Steering Committee adopt this update document

- Next week, we expect the Steering Committee to formally adopt it and we will publish the updated Technical Trust Policy the following day
